Year of the Youth in the Diocese of Darwin Amoris Laetitia

We have known a love that is prior to any of our own efforts, a love that constantly opens doors, promotes and encourages. If we accept that God's love is unconditional, that the Father's love cannot be bought or sold, then we will become capable of showing boundless love and forgiving others even if they have wronged us. Otherwise, our family life will no longer be a place of understanding, support and encouragement, but rather one of constant tension and mutual criticism. The expression chairei epi te adikia has to do with a negativity lurking deep within a person's heart. It is the toxic attitude of those who rejoice at seeing an injustice done to others. The following phrase expresses its opposite: sygchairei te aletheia: "it rejoices in the right". In other words, we rejoice at the good of others when we see their dignity and value their abilities and good works. This is impossible for those who must always be comparing and competing, even with their spouse, so that they secretly rejoice in their failures. All this assumes that we ourselves have had the experience of being forgiven by God, justified by his grace and not by our own merits.
 Pope Francis, Ch.4#108-109, Amoris Laetitia.

Pope Francis has inspired millions of people around our world with his Laudato Si statement to care for our common home. The Global Catholic Climate Movement is encouraging us to gather as Laudato Si Circles.

Laudato Si' Circles are small groups of people who gather regularly to deepen their relationship with God as Creator and all members of creation, in the light of the Laudato Si' encyclical and the urgency to tackle climate change and the ecological crisis. Laudato Si' Circles are rooted in three pillars of prayer, simplicity, and communal action.

Susan Marshall and Chris Hawke invite you to explore how we can respond to Laudato Si here in Central Australia in 2019.

We're gathering next Tuesday 08 January from 1400 (2pm) in the airconditioned conference room at Campfire in the Heart (8204 Ragonesi Road near Steiner School). Bring swimmers if you, kids or friends wish to enjoy the swimming pool. See catholicclimatemovement.global/circles/ or Chris Hawke 0499 034225

Reconciliation:

Baptism: By appointment: one month's notice required. Formation of parents falls on the 1st Monday of the month. 7:00 pm -8:00 pm

We acknowledge the original custodians of this land and pay our respects to the Elders both past, present and future for they hold the memories, the traditions, the culture and hopes of Indigenous Australia. As we share our faith within our Catholic family we also acknowledge those that paved the way to give us our Church and Parish and welcome all into our community.

The EPIPHANY of the LORD Year C
5th - 6th January 2019

Entrance Antiphon:

Behold the Lord, the Mighty One, has come; and kingship is in his grasp, and power and dominion

Mal 3:1; 1 Chr 19:12

First Reading:

The glory of the Lord shine upon you.

Isaiah 60:1-6

Arise, shine out Jerusalem, for your light has come, the glory of the Lord is rising on you, though night still covers the earth and darkness the peoples. Above you the Lord now rises and above you his glory appears. The nations come to your light and kings to your dawning brightness. Lift up your eyes and look round: all are assembling and coming towards you, your sons from far away and daughters being tenderly carried. At this sight you will grow radiant, your heart throbbing and full; since the riches of the sea will flow to you, the wealth of the nations come to you; camels in throngs will cover you, and dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; everyone in Sheba will come, bringing gold and incense and singing the praise of the Lord.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm:

Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

Ps 71:1-2. 7-8. 10-13

Second Reading:

The revelation means that pagans now share the same inheritance, that they are parts of the same body.

Ephesians 3:2-3.5-6

You have probably heard how I have been entrusted by God with the grace he meant for you, and that it was by a revelation that I was given the knowledge of the mystery. This mystery that has now been revealed through the Spirit to his holy apostles and prophets was unknown to any men in past generations; it means that pagans now share the same inheritance, that they are parts of the same body, and that the same promise has been made to them, in Christ Jesus, through the gospel. The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! We have seen his star in the East; and have come to adore the Lord. Alleluia!

Mt 2:2

Gospel:

We have come from the East to worship the king.

Matthew 2:1-12

After Jesus had been born at Bethlehem in Judaea during the reign of King Herod, some wise men came to Jerusalem from the east. 'Where is the infant king of the Jews?' they asked. 'We saw his star as it rose and have come to do him homage.' When King Herod heard this he was perturbed, and so was the whole of Jerusalem. He called together all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, and enquired of them where the Christ was to be born. 'At Bethlehem in Judaea,' they told him 'for this is what the prophet wrote: And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah you are by no means least among the leaders of Judah, for out of you will come a leader who will shepherd my people Israel.' Then Herod summoned the wise men to see him privately. He asked them the exact date on which the star had appeared, and sent them on to Bethlehem. 'Go and find out all about the child,' he said 'and when you have found him, let me know, so that I too may go and do him homage.' Having listened to what the king had to say, they set out. And there in front of them was the star they had seen rising; it went forward and halted over the place where the child was. The sight of the star filled them with delight, and going into the house they saw the child with his mother Mary, and falling to their knees they did him homage. Then opening their treasures, they offered him gifts of gold and frankincense and myrrh. But they were warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, and returned to their own country by a different way.

The Gospel of the Lord

Prayer of the Faithful: Lord, hear our prayer.
